AL JAMA-AH says the Muslim and Arab countries' summit will be meaningless should it fail to come up with concrete action against the Zionist Israeli entity:

At a Mawlud-un Nabi (celebration of the birth of Prophet Muhammed (S)) held in Mayfair in Johannesburg on Sunday 14 September 2025, Al Jama-ah called on Pakistan to take the lead to control the skies over Gaza and in Palestine “from the river to the sea.” The party stated that Pakistan should establish a military base in all the Gulf states

The party further called on international organisations including member countries of BRICS, to declare Qatar as the Middle East mediator and to give it the highest awards and protection.

Al Jama-ah says Muslim and Arab countries must form a military alliance against the Zionist Israeli entity as the latter is determined to erase all borders for its “Greater Israel Project”.

The Zionist entity’s “Greater Israel Project” has started when it invaded Palestine and now that war for expansion by attacking Doha, is only the beginning of targeting the region’s states one by one; a military alliance must be formed to confront it and stop its expansion.

Al Jama-ah says today’s summit which is being held in Qatar, will be meaningless if it fails to come up with concrete actions against the Zionist entity. “A strong position, such as recognising the right of jihad (holy war) against this bloodthirsty occupier will affirm the whole region’s support to stop the genocide in Gaza and its occupation.

The summit must not fall short of declaring support for the Resistance Movements and to recognise that the Zionist entity is an apartheid ‘state’. These regional countries supported South Africa’s anti-apartheid struggle, why not support the Resistance in Palestine,” says the Party’s leader, Hon Ganief Hendricks who is the Deputy Minister of Social Development.

The Zionist entity's genocidal crimes in Gaza and aggressions against Muslim countries in the region, Saudi Arabia, Turkey and Iraq must not be surprised if they get attacked by by the Zionists.
